Dear Parent and Carer

Strike action – 5.7.16

You may well have heard in the news that the National Union of Teachers (NUT) is planning a day of action on Tuesday 5th July. This action is linked to a dispute with the Government and is not aimed at any individual school or local authority. I have been given an indication that Danesgate has only a small number of staff in these unions but individuals can join between now and the strike day so this number may go up. If teachers of specific classes or a proportion of teaching assistants decide to strike then I will have to consider closing to some pupils in order to ensure I have appropriate Health & Safety coverage.

At the present time our primary groups and some personalised tuition will be closed. Parents who are affected by this will have had a phone call direct to them to ensure they know. The rest of the school will be open as normal on that day.

I am very sorry for any inconvenience this may cause. If you have any emergency child care problems please let us know and we will try to help you resolve these.

If you have any queries or concerns please do not hesitate to ring me or Mrs Norris, Deputy Head on 642611.

Yours sincerely

Patricia Head (Mrs)
Headteacher
